

I don't think there has been enough debate on the issue of media consolidation. This issue impacts the public powerfully, and one meeting is clearly insufficient for public comment. Failing a postponement of the vote to allow more time for public debate, I urge you to retain the current ownership rule. We need rules that serve PUBLIC, not PRIVATE, interests, i.e., LESS rather than MORE media consolidation, MORE rather than LESS program diversity.